

ABCD 3: Remo D'Souza Confirms His Plan Of Coming With The 3rd Part Of Dance Franchise, Spills Beans About The Lead Actor

Choreographer-filmmaker Remo D'Souza dance drama film ABCD (Anybody Can Dance) was one of the box office hit of 2013. It's sequel ABCD 2 in 2015 with Varun Dhawan and Shraddha Kapoor in the lead also received rave reviews from critics and audience. Since then fans have been waiting with bated breath for the third instalment to be announced.

Now the fans have a reason to rejoice. After eight years after the release of the first film, the filmmaker has revealed that ABCD 3 is on cards. The filmmaker has confirmed that he is planning a third part of the franchise and soon casting will kick-off.

Choreographer-filmmaker Remo D'Souza dance drama film ABCD (Anybody Can Dance) was one of the box office hit of 2013. It's sequel ABCD 2 in 2015 with Varun Dhawan and Shraddha Kapoor in the lead also received rave reviews from critics and audience. Since then fans have been waiting with bated breath for the third instalment to be announced.

Now the fans have a reason to rejoice. After eight years after the release of the first film, the filmmaker has revealed that ABCD 3 is on cards. The filmmaker has confirmed that he is planning a third part of the franchise and soon casting will kick-off.